

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The speed of her ships and the skill of her sailors has long been an outstanding example of the spirit of America, and the Merchant Marine is important to the nation's economy and security; and,

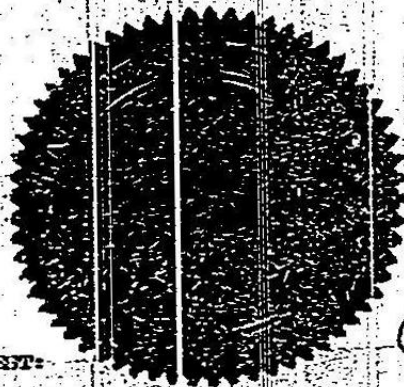

WHEREAS, The Merchant Marine Act of 1970 is once again awakening the venturesome spirit of maritime enterprise that has contributed to the strength and development of our nation and is part of a national commitment and program to revitalize our merchant marine and improve the competitive position of our ship-building industry; and,

WHEREAS, This program will generate the construction of many new ships of advanced design and high productive capacity to insure that the American Merchant is again one of the most modern and efficient in the world; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 22, 1987, as

ATTEST:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
